

Algorithmics

Introducing

Objectives

The objective, at the end of the two semesters of algorithmics, is to have understood :

- the notion of algorithm and typing ;
- nested data structures ;

and to be able to :

- design algorithms for simple problems (e.g. finding a min in a collection of structured data);
- write them as reusable subroutines (functions) in Ada ;
- test their validity using unit tests

Practical info

Location(s)

 Toulouse